St. James's, March 6.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Briſtol, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for your Perſon and Government which become the moſt faithful Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

And we moſt unfeignedly and gratefully thank your Majeſty, for having diſmiſſed from your Service a Set of Miniſters who were deſperate enough to ſacrifice every public Good which ſtood in the Way of their unbounded Ambition; and who for that Purpoſe were endeavouring to annihi ate the legal and Chartered Rights of a great Commercial Company.

The Honor of your Majeſty's Crown, and the true Intereſt of your People, are and ever will be inſeparable: Your Majeſty hath on all Occaſions demonſtrated to the World that you have both equally at Heart: And a ſtronger Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Attention to the Intereſt of your People could not have appeared than in your Choice of the preſent Miniſtry; Men in whoſe Honeſty, Abilities, and Rectitude of Intentions, we have the fulleſt Confidence.

For ſo ſeaſonable an Exertion of the Royal Prerogative, we, the Citizens of Briſtol, beg Leave to repeat our warmeſt Thanks, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we deſire nothing more than the Preſervation of our wiſe and excellent Conſtitution, in the ſame happy, firm, and envied Situation in which it was handed down to us from our Anceſtors, and your Majeſty's Great Predeceſſors.

The following Addreſs of the Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Falmouth, Recorder of Tregony, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, in this Hour of public Danger, with humble but ſincere Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, confiding, as we do moſt cordially, in your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and in the Virtue of the preſent Miniſters.

We humbly preſume to hope, that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to continue Men of ſuch Integrity and Ability as your Councillors and Adviſers, to the Comfort of your loyal Subjects, and to the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne in Proſperity and Happineſs.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Trevelyan, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Somerſet, and the Right Honourable Lord Hood, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerſet, beg Leave, at this alarming Criſis, to approach your Royal Preſence, with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

We beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble but moſt ſincere Thanks, for the ſeaſonable Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, in diſmiſſing from your Councils the Perſons who compoſed the late Adminiſtration; an unprincipled Set of Men, who, under the ſpecious Pretence of correcting Abuſes, and reſtraining the Commiſſion of civil Injuries, made a moſt daring Attempt on the Chartered Rights of a conſiderable Body of your Majeſty's Subjects, trifled with the moſt ſolemn of all legal Aſſurances, and aimed a fatal Blow at our excellent Conſtitution; we beheld with Indignation their alarming Conduct, and rejoiced that your Majeſty's gracious Interpoſition put a Period to their dangerous Proceedings.

We feel the higheſt Satisfaction in your Majeſty's calling into Office a different Deſcription of Men, whoſe conſummate Abilities and diſintereſted Integrity entitle them to the Confidence of your Majeſty, and the Applauſe of a grateful Country.

We humbly pray that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, united, and happy People; and in the ſeveral Relations of a Sovereign and a Father, may your Majeſty be bleſſed and protected by the King of Kings.

Dated this Twenty-ſeventh Day of February, 1784.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Charles Francis Greville and Robert Ladbroke, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

IN the preſent diſtracted State of public Affairs, we think it incumbent on us to aſſure your Majeſty of our Loyalty and Affection to your Perſon and and Government, and the grateful Senſe we entertain of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, in Diſmiſſing from your Service Men whoſe Conduct ſhews their Principles injurious to the Rights of the Crown, the Spirit of the Conſtitution, and the true Liberty and Proſperity of the Subject.

Not contented with endeavouring to create a Power heretofore unknown to our glorious Conſtitution for Purpoſes too obvious to mention, they are encroaching upon your Royal Prerogative; and regardleſs of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and the Good and Happineſs of the People, they have for a conſiderable Time withheld from your Majeſty the neceſſary Supplies for carrying on the public Buſineſs of the Nation; and this with an avowed Intent to compel your Majeſty to abandon your preſent Miniſters, and to controul the Appointment of others, thereby wreſting out of your Majeſty's Hands the Exerciſe of that eſſential Part of your Royal Prerogative.

Under theſe very alarming Circumſtances we think ourſelves called upon by the Regard we have for our excellent Conſtitution, to declare to your Majeſty our utter Abhorrence of the dangerous Meaſures lately purſued, and ſtill purſuing, by theſe ambitious Men; that in our Opinion your preſent Miniſters have a decided Superiority over their Opponents in the Hearts of your Subjects, becauſe they have not deſerted their Sovereign, nor deceived their Fellow-Subjects; and that it is our firm Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power in the lawful Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative for the Benefit of the Community.

And we conſider ourſelves abſolutely called upon to make our Sentiments, on the preſent Occaſion, known to your Majeſty, to prevent an Inference being drawn from our Silence, that we approve of the violent Conduct of the diſappointed Leaders of the diſcarded Adminiſtration, and to give ſome Proof that the Voice of the preſent Houſe of Commons is not the Voice of the People.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Clergy, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Tamworth, has been preſented to the King by John Calvert, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Clergy, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, with all Humility, to expreſs our ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and to offer our moſt hearty and unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's firm Attention to the Proſperity of your People, and to the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution. We admire the Wiſdom of our Anceſtors in placing in the Crown the undoubted Right of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; and we truſt that your Majeſty, in your Wiſdom and Goodneſs, will always exerciſe this legal Prerogative, to the Advancement of the Honour of your Crown, and to the Welfare and Proſperity of your free and grateful People.

That your Majeſty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of an happy and united People, is the ſincere Wiſh of your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Hands this Twenty-ſixth Day of February, 1784.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnſtaple, has been preſented to the King by John Cleveland, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnſtaple, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Barnſtaple, in the County of Devon, think, that it would be unpardonable in us, who have ſo long felt the Influence of your paternal Care, not to approach your Royal Preſence, at this important Criſis, with the ſincereſt Profeſſions of Loyalty and Affection.

Impreſſed with a due Senſe of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gentle Government, we cannot but with ſorrow perceive the Diſtractions which at preſent pervade the Great Council of the Nation, whilſt at the ſame Time we lament and declare our Abhorrence of thoſe pernicious Efforts of a diſappointed Ambition, which ſeem to have been profeſſedly made uſe of to diſturb and confound its Deliberations: An Ambition, which endeavours to ſpread Anarchy and Confuſion widely through this happy Land, which appears ready to trample under Foot the ſacred Rights both of King and People, and ſacrifice all Virtues, public and private, to promote its own ſelfiſh Ends, and deſtroy its Oppoſers.

Under ſuch alarming Appearances to remain ſilent and unconcerned would ill become a People ſenſible of their preſent happy Conſtitution: With all Confidence and Humility, therefore, we declare our Reliance in your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Moderation for its Defence and Support; and we truſt that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to believe a faithful and loyal People; when we declare ourſelves ready, on all Occaſions, to manifeſt to the World, that we have ſincerely at Heart the Honour of our King, the Support of His Government, and the true Intereſt of this Country. That your Majeſty may long reign in Peace and Tranquillity, over a dutiful and grateful People, is the ardent Wiſh of your Majeſty's loyal and devoted Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, has been preſented to the King by John Aubrey, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the heartieſt Aſſurances of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

It was with the utmoſt Concern and Alarm that we beheld the Attempt made by your Majeſty's late Miniſters upon the Charter of a great Commercial Company.

We felt for the Rights of this ancient Borough; we felt for thoſe of every corporate Body in the Nation; which, had the Meaſure paſſed into a Law, would have been equally threatened and endangered by ſo fatal a Precedent. Such a Precedent would have ſhaken the Title of every Man in the Kingdom to his Property and Franchiſe; not merely by ſuperceding without Neceſſity, but by treating, with Levity and Contempt, chartered Rights of the first Order; and, at the same Time, creating, as far as the great Object of India is concerned, a new executive Power in the State.

with

Permit us then Sire, most sincerely to thank your Majesty for having dismissed from your Councils, Ministers who would thus dare to attack at once the Crown and the People.

We beg Leave to acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude and Joy, your Majesty's paternal Goodness in appointing an Administration, which is sustained by a Minister, with a Character the most exemplary, and of the highest Expectations: A Minister, whose Qualifications and Virtues claim equally the Admiration and Confidence of the Nation.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bridport, has been presented to the King by Thomas Scott, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most zealous Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government.

It was with great Concern we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, by the Bill brought into Parliament; which, had it passed into a Law, would, we humbly apprehend, have been an Infringement on the Constitution of this Country.

We beg your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for having dismissed those Ministers from their Employments; and we do assure your Majesty we have Confidence in the present Administration, and whilst they pursue Measures conducive to the Honour of the Crown, in Conjunction with the true Interest of their Country, they may, we trust, safely rely on the Support of the People.

That your Majesty, in perfect Tranquillity, may long reign over a brave and united People, is our sincere and most ardent Wish.

Given under our Common Seal this First Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, were by his Lordship presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Fife.

WE acknowledge with Gratitude the Wisdom of our Ancestors in annexing to the Crown of these Realms the undoubted Prerogative of appointing to all the Great Offices of Executive Government.

In this alarming Crisis we hope that your Majesty will be steadily and effectually supported in such wise and parental Measures as tend to the Security of established Rights, and to maintain the just Balance of those Three Powers, which form the Safety and Glory of our envied Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Cupar, the 24th Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Years.

Balcarres, Preses.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kirkcaldy.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ACTUATED by every Feeling of Attachment and Regard to your Majesty's Person and Government, permit your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Burgesses and others of your ancient Burgh of Kirkcaldy, to approach the Throne at this critical and alarming Period, when Discord and Party Spirit seem with too many to prevail over a Sense of Duty and Principle.

It was with no small Pleasure we lately beheld the Rejection of a Bill in Parliament by one Branch of the Legislature, which had received the Sanction of another. A Bill, as we conceive, destructive of the Rights of private Property, and calculated to establish a new and dangerous Influence, which, one Day, under the Direction of insatiable Ambition, might have proved equally hostile to your Majesty's just Prerogatives, and to the sacred Liberties of your People. The Dismission, therefore, of those Men from your Councils, who seem bent on the Pursuit of these Measures, and the Appointment of others to the highest Departments of the State, who, it is hoped, will continue to merit the Confidence of your Majesty and the Public, cannot but be felt with extreme Satisfaction by all your faithful Subjects.

As the Powers with which your Majesty is invested by the Constitution will, we trust, be always exerted for the Good of your People; so, on the present Occasion, it must afford Matter of peculiar Joy to your Majesty, to find the well-timed Exercise of your Prerogative accompanied by the humble Approbation of your Subjects, as is evident by those fresh Instances of their Affection and Respect, which your Majesty is daily receiving. Deeply impressed with a Sense of your paternal Concern for promoting the Interests of your People; it is no less our Inclination than our Duty earnestly to desire that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, in the Hearts and over the Persons of a free and prosperous Nation.

The following Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow, has been presented to the King by Sir William Cunyngham, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Shire, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow.

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow, sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and just Administration, think it our Duty, at this critical and alarming juncture of Public Affairs, to approach the Throne with the warmest Assurances of Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend the just Prerogatives of the Crown, and the Liberties of the Subject, from all Encroachments and Innovations.

It is with the deepest Regret and Concern that we observe that of late the Business of the Nation has been obstructed and impeded, from Motives which we cannot approve of, to the great Hurt and Detriment of Public Credit; and that one of your Majesty's undoubted Prerogatives has been attempted to be encroached upon, and transferred to a Branch of the Legislature to which it does not belong.

Attached to no Set of Ministers, excepting such as may prove themselves to be deserving of the

Confiden e

Confidence of the Nation on Account of their Integrity, their Public Virtues, and their useful Services to their Country, our sincere and ardent Prayer is, that upright and able Men of your Majesty's Choice may ever surround your Throne, and assist in your Councils.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, the 24th Day of February, 1784.

Rosebery, Preses.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Traders and Citizens of the Burgh of Ayr, has been presented to the King by Sir Archibald Edmonstone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Traders and Citizens of His ancient and loyal Burgh of Ayr, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, deeply impressed with a Sense of your paternal Affection to all your Subjects, and unremitting Attention to their just Privileges; we, at the present alarming Crisis, feel ourselves called upon in the most forcible Manner, to join our grateful Voice to that of our other Fellow Subjects, who have so seasonably acknowledged your Majesty's truly constitutional and patriotic Exertions, in dismissing from your Councils those Men, who, upon the Annihilation of Chartered Privileges and Publick Faith, would assume the Government of this Country, and deprive the Crown of that undoubted and invaluable Prerogative of appointing its own Servants.

We would fondly hope there is still that Degree of Knowledge and Virtue remaining among your loyal Subjects, as will enable your Majesty to select a Ministry capable of retrieving the Dignity of this enfeebled and distracted Country; and we beg Leave to express our fullest Confidence, that the God in whom you trust will direct your Majesty to the Faithful of the Land, whose Plans of Œconomy and Government will insure lasting Happiness to your Majesty's Empire.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Common Seal of the Burgh appended hereto, by

Wil. Campbell Fairfield, Provost.
